Sommario/riassunto

"With the European Concerts, the Berliner Philharmoniker celebrate the anniversary of the founding of the orchestra on 1 May 1882 and at the same time they remember Europe's common cultural heritage. In addition to the many, often spectacular, venues, the recordings boast a top-class line-up of artists. Central to these performances - in addition to the Berliner Philharmoniker themselves - are chief conductors

Claudio Abbado and Sir Simon Rattle plus there are many close friends of the orchestra such as Daniel Barenboim, Mariss Jansons and Gustavo Dudamel. There are also famous instrumental and vocal soloists, making this edition a panorama of classical music of the last two and a half decades."-from the website
